Transforming a Library into a Space of Inspiration

• A Librarian's Perspective

The Educational Wall Painting Initiative at the Mandekolu Gram Panchayat Library transformed more than just walls—it created an inviting learning environment that celebrates local culture and inspires young readers. Through vibrant artwork depicting Yakshagana, Kambala, and other regional themes, volunteers turned the library into a space where children can connect with knowledge, creativity, and their heritage.

...The library has been beautified with arts of local folklore of Yakshagana, Kambala etc...The selfless service and dedication shown by all the students are truly memorable and highly praiseworthy. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the volunteers, the members, and especially the Akanksha Charitable Trust for this incredible initiative, as well as to our department for making this collaboration possible. Whenever you are in Sullia or Mandekolu, please do visit our library.
